

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

An ACT to regulate the finances of the city of New-York.

Passed June 8, 1812.

WHEREAS the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of New-York, have, by their memorial to the legislature represented, that by reason of the great expenses which they have incurred in the erection of public buildings in the city of New-York, in the purchase of grounds for public purposes, in the opening, enlarging and improving streets, in constructing wharves and piers, and in consequence of various other improvements of a permanent nature in the said city, they have found the ordinary revenues of the corporation altogether inadequate to meet the demands which those expenses have produced, and that, they have, therefore, from time to time, been obliged to raise money by bonds under their corporate seal to defray some of those expenses, and have also given other bonds as a security for the payment of the residue thereof, representing further, that for the purpose of carrying into operation the plan, which has lately been made by the commissioners appointed by an act of the legislature, for laying out the said city in streets, avenues and public squares, a sum of money will become requisite, which they despair of being able to raise without legislative interference in their behalf; and praying that the legislature may pass an act permitting them to fund their present debt and provide for their future exigencies by creating a stock not exceeding nine hundred thou-and dollars. And whereas the prayer of said memorial appears reasonable, and is the more especially proper to be granted, inasmuch as the interest of the state at large is intimately connected with the prosperity and improvement of the city of New-York, and that prosperity and improvement essentially depend upon and will be materially increased by a permanent arrangement of the finances of this city, and thus establishing the credit of the corporation on a solid basis : Therefore,

VI. And be it further enacted, That the persons entrusted by the common council with the execution of this act, shall, before they enter on the duties imposed upon them, become bound in such sureties and to such amount, as shall be satisfactory to the said common council, conditioned for the faithful execution of the said duties entrusted to them.

Persons entrusted with the execution of this law to give bonds.

This act shall not impair the right of those who now hold bonds against the said corporation.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the certificates to be issued, in manner aforesaid, though not under the common seal of the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the said city, shall be binding and obligatory upon the said corporation in like manner and with like force and effect, as though the same were issued under the said common seal.

Passed June 16, 1812.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to the legislature by Andrew P. Lord and nineteen others, agents appointed at the annual town-meeting, in the several towns comprising the twenty townships west of the Unadilla river, in the counties of Chenango, Madison and Oneida, that the surveyor-general, by virtue of the act of the legislature of the 11th of April, 1808, laid out forty lots (being two lots for each township) of two hundred and fifty acres each, on a certain tract of land then lately purchased of the Oneida Indians, south of and adjoining the Oneida Lake, for the support of the gospel and of schools on said twenty townships, but that the benevolent intentions of the legislature cannot be realised by reason that the said forty lots are appropriated generally for the benefit of said twenty townships, without any designation what lots shall be particularly appropriated to each of said townships, and also by reason that there are no agents appointed to take the care of said lots and prevent trespasses thereon ; to remedy which,

Each town shall elect an agent.

I. Be it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in senate and assembly, That the inhabitants of the towns comprising any of said townships, shall, every year at their annual town-meeting, elect an agent residing on each of the townships contained in said town ; and if any of said townships are divided by the division line of a town, the inhabitants of the town containing the largest part of such township, shall elect such agent, and it shall be the duty of ^{their duty.} the agents so to be elected to meet at the village of Sherburne on the last Tuesday of March in each year, and by a plurality of votes of said agents so assembled, to choose three commissioners to take the charge and care of the aforesaid lots, and if in their opinion it shall be for the best interest of such townships to lease the said lots, or any one or more of them, for a term not exceeding seven years, reserving a rent to said commissioners and their successors; and said commissioners are hereby authorised and empowered, in their official names, to commence actions and prosecute the same to final judgment and effect, against all and every person and persons trespassing upon said lots, or any of them, and also in their official names to bring actions of ejectment, and prosecute the same to final judgment and effect against all and every person and persons intruding on said lots, or any of them; and John W. Bulkley, Andrew P. Lord and Amos Maynard are hereby appointed commissioners, to continue until others shall be appointed by the agents of the said townships as abovementioned, and until such appointment are hereby invested with all the rights, powers and duties above granted and required of the commissioners to be appointed by said agents: Provided, ^{Provide.} That if any of the said lots of land shall be occupied and improved at the time of passing this act to the value of twenty-five dollars, the occupant of such improvement shall be entitled to receive the value thereof, in the same manner as is provided in and by the eighth section of the act entitled "an act for the sale of unappropriated land, and for other purposes," passed the 6th day of April, 1803; and the agents appointed by this act, and their successors in office, shall be considered as the purchasers of said land for all the purposes mentioned in said eighth section of the act aforesaid, and that the said occupants shall not be dispossessed of said improvements until they shall have been paid for the same.

II. And be it further enacted, That if said agents, or a majority of them, assembled at their annual meeting as aforesaid, shall direct a division to be made of the said lots among said townships, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to divide said lots to said townships agreeable to and in the manner directed by said agents, giving to each of said townships two of said lots, and having said division of lots to each township, as nearly as possible of an equal value; and after said lots are so divided, the said commissioners shall cause a description or memorandum of said division to be made and signed by them, and they, or one of them, shall acknowledge the same before some person authorised to take the acknowledgment of deeds, who shall certify such acknowledgment: and said commissioners shall cause such memorandum to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county of Madison; and the said lots shall forever thereafter belong solely to the inhabitants of the township to which they shall severally be allotted by said commissioners, for the support of the gospel and schools in such township. And after such division the power of said commissioners shall cease; and the agents of the several townships shall thereafter have severally the charge and care of the said lots belonging to their respective townships, with all the power, rights and duties, so far as respects the lots under their care respectively, as is by this act given to said commissioners over said lots,

III. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid commissioners shall account annually with the supervisors of the several towns comprehending said township, at the annual meeting of the supervisors for said several counties, for all monies by them received by virtue of this act, and shall pay over to the supervisor of each of said towns such part of said monies as shall be in the same proportion to the whole monies received, as the part of said townships, comprehended in said town, shall be to the said twenty townships. And the said agents and the said supervisors shall apply said monies by them respectively received, to the support of common schools in said townships respectively, in such manner as shall be directed by vote of the inhabitants of the several towns comprehending said townships, at their annual town-meeting.

And said agents shall hold said money and securities by them received, subject to the order of said inhabitants in said respective townships in town-meeting assembled, for the support of common schools in said townships.

Lots may be sold.

V. And be it further enacted, That the supervisors of the aforesaid several counties, at their annual meeting, shall audit the accounts of said commissioners and agents, and shall allow them a reasonable sum for their services and expenses in discharging the duties required of them by this act, and shall cause the same to be collected of the inhabitants of the several towns comprehending any part of said townships in a direct proportion to the quantity of territory to be benefited by this act, and comprehended in said several towns.

Accounts of commissioners how to be audited.

And WHEREAS John Cooper, one of the trustees of the associate reformed church in the town of Stirling, hath, in behalf of himself and the other trustees of the said church, represented to the legislature that the lot in said town, set apart for gospel and schools, is at a place so remote from the settlements of their church and society, that it is very inconvenient for them to improve said lot for any of the beneficial purposes originally intended, and have therefore prayed that lot number seventeen, one of the lots belonging to the people of this state should be appropriated to gospel and school purpose: Therefore,

Duty of the comptroller in a certain case.

III. And be it further enacted, That if upon the valuation of the said lands mortgaged as aforesaid, to be made in manner aforesaid, the comptroller shall be of opinion that the said lands are worth a sum more than sufficient to discharge the said demand of the said Archibald Currie against the said John Munro, that then he shall report to the legislature such sums: Pro-

An ACT for the Relief of the Heirs of John Schultz, deceased.

Passed June 19, 1812.

WHEREAS it is represented to the Legislature by all the heirs of John Schultz, late of the town of Rhinebeck, in the county of Dutchess, that he died seised of real estate, leaving several children, some of whom are infants; that the real estate so left is unproductive of sufficient revenue for the support of the said children; that a partition of that part of the estate which belongs to the children, and not set apart to the widow of the said John Schultz, would be productive of great inconvenience and injury to their interests; that a sale of the whole together may be effected on terms more advantageous, and will probably produce a fund the income of which will support and educate the minor children: And whereas they, by their guardians, together with the children, who are of full age, have prayed that a law may be passed for the sale of the whole property together: Therefore,

I. Be it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in senate and assembly, That Robert Sands, Jacob Schultz and John F. Schultz, be and they are hereby appointed trustees, with full power to them, or any two of them, to grant, bargain and sell, for the best price and upon the best terms in their power, all the real estate of which the said John Schultz died seised, and that they, or any two of them, may execute good and sufficient deeds and conveyances in the law to the purchaser or purchasers thereof: Provided, That so much of said estate as has already been set off and assigned to Anna Curtis, the wife of the said John Schultzs, deceased, as and for her dower, shall in no wise be affected by this act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said trustees shall pay to such of the children and heirs of the said John Schultzs, deceased, as shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, their heirs and assigns, their respective portions of the proceeds of such sale as soon as the same shall have been by them received after deducting their reasonable costs and charges, to be allowed and approved by the first judge of the county of Dutchess; and the said trustees shall cause the remainder of the said proceeds to be placed at interest in a manner to be approved of by the chancellor of the state, and shall apply the interest and income thereof to the support and education of the minor children of said John Schultzs, in equal proportions; and when and as the said minor children shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years respectively, the said trustees shall pay the principal to the said children, in equal proportions, share and share alike.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said trustees, before they enter on the execution of the said trust, shall execute a bond to the children and heirs of the said John Schultzs, with two sureties, to be approved of by the chancellor, in such sum as the said chancellor shall direct, conditioned for the due and faithful execution of their trust, which bond shall be filed in the office of the register or assistant-register of the court of chancery, for the use of the said children.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the said trustees, or any of them, shall die before the said trust shall be executed, it shall be lawful for the chancellor to appoint other trustees in their stead, who shall in all respects conform to the directions of this act.

CHAP. CCVIII.

An ACT for the relief of Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, and for other purposes.

Passed June 19, 1812.

WHEREAS Charles Wright, guardian of the person and estate of Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and William Lupton, of the city of New-York, have presented their petition to the legislature at their present session, setting forth and stating that the said William Lupton, and Lancaster Lupton, his brother, and John B. Johnson and Elizabeth, his wife, in right of the said Elizabeth, the sister of them the said William and Lancaster, being seized in fee simple as tenants in common in equal parts of the moiety or one undivided half part of certain lands and real estate situated and lying in the counties of Rockland, Orange, Sullivan, Saratoga, Washington and Montgomery, in this state, and they the said William Lupton, Lancaster Lupton, and John B. Johnson and Elizabeth his wife, in right of the said Elizabeth, together with Peter Roosevelt, their brother of the half blood, being seized as tenants in common in equal parts of the other moiety or half part of the same lands and real estates, the undivided parts and shares of them the said John B. Johnson and Elizabeth his wife, and the said Peter Roosevelt, were conveyed to and vested in the said William Lupton and Lancaster Lupton, as trustees upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same, and to execute conveyances therefor to the purchasers in fee simple, and to pay over to them the said John B. Johnson and Elizabeth his wife and Peter Roosevelt respectively, their respective proportions of the purchase monies as the same should be received: and that sales and conveyances were made and executed by them the said William and Lancaster Lupton, for some part of the said lands and premises, and contracts entered into or terms agreed upon for the sale and conveyance of other parts thereof, but that the said Lancaster Lupton, before the said contract and agreements were carried into effect, died intestate, leaving Frances Platt Lupton, his widow, and the aforesaid Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, his only child and heir at law him surviving; and that the said William Lupton, after the death of the said Lancaster Lupton not adverting to the descent upon that event of the part and share of the said Lancaster Lupton of and in the said lands and real estate to the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, his heir at law, but erroneously supposing the same to accrue to him the said William Lupton as survivor, and the power to sell the same to vest in him, proceeded to carry into execution the said contracts and agreements for sales thereof which had been made in the life-time of the said Lancaster, but remained unexecuted at the time of his death; and also to make other and further sales and conveyances of further and other parts thereof, and to receive and take the considerations and purchase monies therefor to a large amount; and further setting forth and stating, that the said lands so sold by the said William Lupton, after the death of the said Lancaster Lupton as aforesaid, were sold at private sale on credit with real security for the prices and for the full value thereof at the times of the sales, and to the best advantage that sales thereof could be effected, and that the said sales were satisfactory to all the parties interested therein who were capable of judging of the same; that the said lands were sold in lots or farms to settlers, who, in full confidence in the validity of their titles, have made improvements thereon; and that it will be greatly to the advantage and for the benefit of the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, the said infant, as well as the said purchasers, that the said sales should be confirmed, and that it is very desirable for her, in her present circumstances, that her proportion of the purchase monies received for the said lands and real estate, wherein she was interested, so sold by the said William Lupton, should be accounted for and paid to her or to her said guardian for her use; that all the personal estate of the said Lancaster Lupton, at the time of his death, has been applied towards the payment of his debts; and that the real estate descended to her, the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, from the said Lancaster Lupton her father, being vested in her as a tenant in common with the said William Lupton, and the heirs of the said Elizabeth Johnson, then deceased, the same, with the exception of the lands aforesaid whereof he, the said Lancaster Lupton, was seized at the time of his death as a tenant in common with the said William Lupton, John B. Johnson and Elizabeth his wife, and Peter Roosevelt, hath been sold under and by virtue of the power and provision in that behalf contained in the act, entitled "an act for the partition of lands," and that the said Frances Platt Lupton, the widow of the said Lancaster, claims to have one third part of the produce thereof set apart, and the income and interest thereof appropriated and secured to her or for her use during her natural life, in lieu and satisfaction of her dower of the said real estate whereof such sale was so made, and that the whole of the remaining two third parts thereof, if no aid can be derived from the proceeds of the sales aforesaid, so made by the said William Lupton after the death of the said Lancaster Lupton, of the lands aforesaid, wherein the said Lancaster was interested at the time of his death as aforesaid, will be exhausted by the debts of him the said Lancaster Lupton; and the whole estate and property of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton will then consist of her undivided part and proportion of the said lands and real estate whereof the said Lancaster Lupton, deceased, and the said William Lupton, John B. Johnson and Elizabeth his wife, and Peter Roosevelt were seized as tenants in common at the time of the death of the said Lancaster Lupton; that the said lands though valuable are unsettled and unproductive, except the parts thereof so sold by the said William Lupton, and the said Charles Wright further setting forth and stating that if the said sales so made by the said William Lupton, after the death of the said Lancaster, of parts of the said lands so descended to the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, should be disaffirmed, and the claim of the said Frances Platt Lupton to such provision as aforesaid, for her dower of the lands sold under the act aforesaid, should be established and allowed, there will be no revenue or productive property whatever left for the maintenance and education of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton; and that if the said sales of her said real estate, so made by the said William Lupton, are confirmed, and the produce thereof accounted for and paid to her said guardian for her use, the same will afford but a scanty support for her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton during her minority, and will be wholly insufficient to enable her said guardian to give her a suitable and proper education; and that the necessities or interests of his said ward may and probably will render future sales of her real estate, or of some part thereof, desirable and expedient to be made during her minority, and before she acquires a legal capacity to make the same; and therefore praying that the sales and conveyances of the said lands and real estate wherein she the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton was interested, made by the said William Lupton after the death of the said Lancaster Lupton as aforesaid, may be confirmed, to the end that her share and proportion of the produce thereof may be allowed and paid to her said guardian for her use: and that suitable provision may be made by law for further sales of the real estate of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton during her minority, in case her exigencies shall be found to require the same to be done: And whereas the said Francis Platt Lupton, the widow of the said Lancaster Lupton, deceased, hath, by writing under her hand, consented to and concurred in the prayer of the said petition: and it appears reasonable and proper that the same should be granted: Therefore,

I. BE it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That the sales and conveyances made by the said William Lupton, after the death of the said Lancaster Lupton, of such parts of the lands and real estate wherein the said Lancaster Lupton was interested at the time of his death, as have been so sold and conveyed to purchasers by the said William Lupton as aforesaid, and the titles of the purchasers thereof under the conveyances of the said William Lupton therefor, as far as respects the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton and Frances Platt Lupton, be and the same hereby are confirmed and made valid and shall, to all intents and purposes, be held, deemed and taken to be as effectual as if the same had been made by the said Lancaster Lupton in his life time: Provided, That the monies made by the sale thereof be fully and faithfully accounted for and allowed and paid to her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, or to her guardian for her use.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the chancellor of this state, for the time being, and he is hereby authorised and empowered at any time or times during the minority of the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, on the application of the said Charles Wright, the guardian of the person and estate of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, or on the application of any future guardian or guardians of the person and estate of the said infant, by petition or bill, to allow and order the sale by such guardian or guardians, under the direction of one of the masters, or such other proper officer of the court of chancery as the chancellor may designate for that purpose, or by one of the masters or other proper officer of the said court, of the real estate of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton now remaining unsold, or of any part or parts thereof, and on such terms and in such manner as he may think proper, in case he shall be satisfied that a sale or sales will be for the benefit and advantage of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, and to make such order for the disposition, management and application of the monies to arise and be made by such sale or sales, as may appear to him to be fit and proper: and such sale or sales, when confirmed by the court of chancery, shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if made by her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, at her full age of twenty-one years, and the conveyances given for the lands so sold in pursuance of the order of the said court for that purpose, shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers thereof all the right, estate, title and interest of her the said Elizabeth Lancaster Lupton, and also of her the said Frances Platt Lupton therein at the time of such sale and conveyance thereof: Provided, That it shall be lawful for the said court of Chancery, on every such sale, to take such order as may appear proper to the said court, for securing to the said Frances Platt Lupton, during her life, the interest and income of one full third part of the nett monies and produce of such sale, in lieu and satisfaction of her dower of the lands so sold.

An ACT to enable John B. Smith to put up beef and pork.

Passed June 19, 1812.

WHEREAS John B. Smith and James Carr have represented, among other things, to the legislature, that they supply the United States navy with near one thousand barrels of beef and pork annually; that by their contract they are obliged to furnish it of a quality superior to the highest denomination of merchantable beef and pork, and they warrant the same to keep two years in any climate; that notwithstanding the superiority of their beef and pork, they are obliged, by the existing laws, to have the same repacked and inspected, whereby its safety is endangered and its quality underrated. They have therefore prayed that John B. Smith, one of the petitioners, be permitted to put up those articles upon his own credit, without being subject to the inspection laws, which petition the legislature being willing to grant,

BE it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the said John B. Smith, for the space of three years from the passing of this act, to pack and put up beef or pork, for the supply of the United States navy, without the same being liable to be repacked and inspected; but he shall make use of barrels of the same dimensions, and shall contain the same weight of beef or pork as is required by the laws regulating the inspection of those articles, and shall also cause his name to be branded at full length on each barrel of such beef or pork.
